

"In proclaiming God's word to others, accept it yourselves in obedience to the Holy Spirit. Meditate on it constantly, so that each day you will have a deeper love of the Scriptures, and in all you say and do show forth to the world our Savior, Jesus Christ.." ~ The Rite of the Institution of Lectors

Role of Lectors

Lectors celebrate the presence of God in our midst by proclaiming the Word. The assembly living out of what is proclaimed, become what St. James has challenged us to be: "Be doers of the word and not hearers only..." James 1:22

Ministry Description

Lectors assist during the Liturgy of the Word by proclaiming the first and second readings. The Lectors also join the opening procession raising the Book of Gospels through the Assembly and placing it on the altar. During Holy Week, additional Lectors are needed to assist in proclaiming the Passion Narrative.

Information on Becoming a Lector

If you are interested in becoming a Lector, please call the parish office or leave a message for Susie Sunderman. She will contact you and guide you through the parish and diocesan training.
