Sacrament of Baptism

The parish would like to help you prepare for the baptism of your child. We offer a pre-baptismal class once on the 3rd Sunday of each month from 2-6 pm. Please call the office for the time of the next class. The child's baptism will be scheduled after parents and sponsor have attended the class. Baptisms are generally celebrated on Saturday after 5:00 pm Mass or Sunday after the 11 Mass.

Sacrament of Marriage

In order to give couples adequate time to prepare for their wedding, we ask that couples call the parish office to schedule an appointment with the pastor six months prior to the anticipated wedding date.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick

When a family member is ill, please call the parish office to invite the pastor to come and celebrate this sacrament with your family member.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament, every 1st Friday of the Month and Third Thursday of the Month from 2:30 to 4:30 pm.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time January 30, 2022

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a “Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador’s civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica).” As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day. We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God’s message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one’s earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth. Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God’s love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

“Love is patient, love is kind ...” As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire. But despite the fact that you’ve probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn’t just for newlyweds. It wasn’t written for married folks. It’s for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe. Which means that First Corinthians is even for the online world. It’s for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I’m forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn’t there?). A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it’s never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window. As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us — even if that’s an opportunity to “strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts.” So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first. When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness. If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love. Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Primera de Corintios y la Corresponsabilidad de las Redes Sociales

“El amor es paciente, el amor es bondadoso...” Por muy familiares que sean estas palabras, nunca parecen desviarse al territorio de volverse triviales o tontas. En su esencia, comunican una verdad sobre nosotros y sobre nuestro Creador que nunca deja de inspirar. Pero a pesar de que probablemente las hayas escuchado en muchas bodas a lo largo del tiempo, La primera de Corintios no es solo para recién casados. No fue escrita para personas casadas. Es para cada uno de nosotros, en cada estado de vida y cada situación social, en cada país, cultura e idioma en todo el mundo. Lo que significa que Primera de Corintios es incluso para el mundo en línea. Es para Facebook, Twitter e Instagram y todas las demás plataformas que me estoy olvidando (parece que hay una nueva todos los días, ¿no es así?). Un sentido de división ya sea enraizado en la política, la cultura o cualquier otra cosa, está creciendo en nuestro mundo, y nunca es más obvio que cuando observamos las interacciones en línea. Después de todo, es mucho más fácil recordar lo que es el amor cuando tenemos ante nosotros un ser humano de carne y hueso. Cuando todo lo que vemos es un avatar o una foto de perfil en una pantalla, especialmente acompañado de una opinión con la que vehementemente no estamos de acuerdo, incluso los cristianos más amorosos pueden tirar Primera de Corintios por la ventana. Como corresponsables diarios, sabemos que estamos obligados a ser no solo amables sino también agradecidos. Recibimos a los demás, pero también damos gracias por lo que nos brindan, incluso si esa es una oportunidad para "luchar con entusiasmo por los mayores dones espirituales." Entonces, antes de que publiques algo en línea la próxima vez, te sugiero que leas Primera de Corintios, y recuerdes que, el amor nunca falla.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Los profetas poseen un conocimiento íntimo de Dios y actúan de acuerdo con su experiencia de Dios. Los mensajes proféticos suelen desafiar el estatus quo y sacarnos de nosotros mismos, enfocándonos en el panorama completo. A menudo pensamos primero en nosotros mismos y en nuestras propias necesidades. Cuando escuchamos a alguien hablar, juzgamos el mérito del mensaje por su grado de utilidad. Si el mensaje o la visión no contiene ningún beneficio o ganancia personal, sino un llamado a expandirnos y crecer, podemos indignarnos. Los profetas suelen ser aquellos cuyo mensaje nos desafía y nos llama a ver las cosas de manera diferente y amar de manera más perfecta y profunda. Dios es amor. Cuando escuchamos a San Pablo hablar sobre el amor, somos testigos del desarrollo del Dios perfecto incondicional, abnegado, y centrado en el otro. Es una invitación a la vida, la libertad y la felicidad que solo Dios nos puede ofrecer. Jesús, que es Dios y Amor encarnado, nos llama a esta expresión más rica de amor. ¿Estamos listos para escuchar y ser retados y desafiados?

IV Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 30 de enero de 2022

Ser cristiano es ser un profeta comprometido en el amor y en la esperanza. La Liturgia de hoy, por medio del profeta Jeremías, nos pone en alerta sobre este asunto del llamado de Dios al discipulado ya desde el vientre materno: “Antes de formarte en el seno de tu madre, ya te conocía; antes de que tú nacieras, yo te consagré, y te destiné a ser profeta de las naciones” (Jeremías 1,5). Para comprender con mayor claridad y poner manos a la obra en este llamado, debemos recordar que, el domingo pasado, Jesús se encontraba en la sinagoga de Nazaret y sus últimas palabras del pasaje de la Escritura decían: “Hoy se cumplen estas palabras proféticas y a ustedes les llegan noticias de ello” (Lucas 4,21). Los que escuchaban a Jesús se admiraban de su elocuencia. ¡No lo podían creer! Ellos lo conocían, habían vivido a su alrededor, tenían familiaridad con él. Por lo menos sabían su oficio, “carpintero, hijo de José y María”. Jesús conocía sus pensamientos y responde: “Seguramente ustedes me van a recordar el dicho: Médico, cúrate a ti mismo. Realiza también aquí, en tu patria, lo que nos cuentan que hiciste en Cafarnaúm” (Lucas 4,23). ¿Por qué nadie es profeta en su tierra? Le pasó a Jesús y nos pasa muchas veces a nosotros, hacemos el bien por ahí y cuando se dan cuenta los vecinos y la familia, viene el cuestionamiento y los comentarios sin saber realmente lo que la persona es, vive, o siente. O, mejor dicho, se ignora su compromiso con el amor, como lo expresa San Pablo a los Corintios: “Ahora, pues, son válidas la fe, la esperanza y el amor: pero la mayor de estas tres es el amor” (1 Corintios 13,13).

SAINT OF THE WEEK – EXAMPLES OF OUR FAITH

St. Blaise | February 3

You may be familiar with the annual “blessing of throats” that many parishes in the United States use to commemorate the beloved bishop and martyr. St. Blaise lived in the fourth century in Turkey and Armenia. Due to religious persecution, he was forced to flee and hide in a cave in the back country in order to save his life. History has it that one day a group of hunters stumbled upon where St. Blaise was living. They found the bishop kneeling in prayer, surrounded by wolves, lions and bears that he had tamed. The legend has it that as the hunters dragged Blaise off to prison, a mother came with her young son who had a fish bone lodged in his throat. At Blaise's command, the child was able to cough up the bone and thus lived. Today we remember the saint on his feast day by taking two candles, crossing them against the throat, and saying the following prayer: Through the intercession of St. Blaise, bishop and martyr, may God deliver you from ailments of the throat and from every other evil. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.
