Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 20, 2022

Sometimes, Jesus' teachings don't seem to make practical sense. When we hear things like love your enemies and do good to them, turn the other cheek when struck, give to anyone who asks, do to others as you would have them do to you, be merciful, stop judging, forgive, and give to others, we get a bit unsettled. After all, it's okay for God to do all of these things, but does He really want us to do them, too? Many good-hearted Christians really draw the line with some of these ideals and say, "No way!" They even remark that if someone did something hurtful to someone they loved, they would have no reservations seeking severe retribution. There is still this persistent thinking, even among those who consider themselves Christian, that a violent action deserves a violent response. Somehow, we continue to justify this. Yet, it is most clearly against the very grain of the Gospel. Part of our difficulty has more to do with understanding God's love. We wrongly think that sinful or hurtful actions and evil people somehow are seen as lesser in God's eyes. They are not. God loves the sinner as much as He does the saint. And, both of these inclinations exist in every human being, even those who consider themselves holy. Both the capacity for good and the disposition toward evil exist in every one of us. Viktor Frankl has this to say when reflecting on the Holocaust: "Our generation is a realistic generation because we have learned what a human being really is. When all is said and done, man is that same creature who invented the gas-chambers of Auschwitz; but he is also that being who walked upright into those chambers with the prayer 'Shema Yisrael' on his lips." If we believe in God, we have to act like God. Whether we like that idea is another issue. If we don't then perhaps, we need to reconsider our faith and whether we really believe in Jesus Christ. We are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian must, at all costs, leave resentment and the need for retaliation behind, lose defensiveness and bring into the mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world.

If you would like to participate and learn more about this process, please find information at the table at the back of the church. Let us walk together and share our stories.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Thanking God for Missing Spears

Imagine how Saul must have felt when he awoke from his sleep and saw his spear missing from its resting place. Now imagine how he felt when he realized that the person who had it was the same person seeking his life — and there he sat, safe and sound. Now there's a day you don't forget your morning prayers. I think if we look, we can all find a "missing spear moment" in our lives, when it hits us right in the gut that God has kept us safe from an impending disaster. This can be physical disaster, sure — but more commonly, I think it is spiritual disaster. Often the salvation comes through the gift of a person, or people, through whom God reveals His mercy. When I was in high school, I had a circle of friends who were really into their faith. We were all in youth ministry together, and the bond we shared taught me a lesson that changed me as a person: we became those with whom we associate. I can look back now, all these years later, and see that these people are evidence of God's hand in my life. Take a look at your life. In whose love has God shown you comfort? By whose hand has God brought you closer to Him, or kept you away from harm? Through whose friendship has God shaped you into the person you are? Let's strive to remember to thank God for these people — and to thank them, too.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Agradeciendo a Dios por las Lanzas Perdidas

Imagínate cómo debió sentirse Saúl cuando despertó de su sueño y vio que su lanza no estaba en su lugar de descanso. Ahora imagínate cómo se sintió cuando se dio cuenta de que la persona que la tenía era la misma persona que buscaba su vida, y allí estaba sentado, sano y salvo. Ese es el día en el que no olvidas tus oraciones matutinas. Creo que, si miramos, todos podemos encontrar un “momento de lanza perdida” en nuestras vidas, cuando nos golpea en el estómago que Dios nos ha mantenido a salvo de un desastre inminente. Esto puede ser un desastre físico, claro, pero más comúnmente, creo que es un desastre espiritual. A menudo, la salvación viene a través del regalo de una persona, o personas, a través de quien Dios revela Su misericordia. Cuando estaba en la escuela preparatoria, tenía un círculo de amigos que estaban realmente interesados en su fe. Todos estábamos juntos en el ministerio de jóvenes, y el vínculo que compartíamos me enseñó una lección que me cambió como persona: nos convertimos en aquellos con quienes nos asociamos. Puedo mirar hacia atrás ahora, todos estos años después, y ver que estas personas son evidencia de la mano de Dios en mi vida. Echa un vistazo a tu vida. ¿En el amor de quién te ha mostrado Dios consuelo? ¿Por mano de quién te ha acercado Dios a Él, o te ha mantenido alejado de cualquier daño? ¿A través de la amistad de quién Dios te ha formado en la persona que eres? Esforcémonos por recordar agradecer a Dios por estas personas y agradecerles a ellos también.

VII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

20 de febrero de 2022

Después de resumir las cuatro bienaventuranzas del domingo pasado, san Lucas nos ayuda a profundizar en la doctrina de Jesús y en sus palabras. Alerta con frases sabias a todos los cristianos, que de alguna manera se acercan al Evangelio: “Yo les digo a ustedes que me escuchan” (Lucas 6,27). Se trata de una colección de principios que versan así: “Amen a sus enemigos, hagan el bien a los que los odian, bendigan a los que los maldicen, y rueguen por los que los maltratan” (Lucas 6, 27-28). Cada uno de estos principios o reglas invitan a una seria reflexión. Deben penetrar en el corazón y en la mente para que produzcan mucho fruto. Además, se nos dan pautas para caminar el camino de Jesús. Realidades increíbles que dice el Maestro, muchas veces imposibles de llevar a cabo. Poner la otra mejilla al ser golpeados, al que arrebató el manto darle también el vestido, dar al que pide, y al que te quita no reclamarle. ¿Cómo se hace esto? Son ejemplos concretos de conducta cristiana que no fallan al ponerlos en práctica. Jesús nos enseña que lo que importa es la persona y que debemos dejar a un lado los prejuicios y diferencias sociales. Si mi prójimo me necesita, ahí debo estar sin fijarme en la raza o el color. Por esa razón existe la regla de oro: “Traten a los demás como quieren que ellos les traten a ustedes” (Lucas 6,31).

LIVE THE LITURGY

"Love your enemies and do good to them." We have such a hard time with this teaching! But it doesn't end there. Jesus continues with turning the other cheek when struck, giving to everyone who asks, doing to others as you would have them do to you, being merciful, stopping our judgment of others, forgiving, and giving. We are okay when God does these things but get a little anxious when we realize that God really wants us to do them too! Secular justice and Gospel justice are definitely not the same. We need to remember that we are made in the image of God, not the image of ourselves. The Christian is called to act like Christ even in those situations where a more assertive or defensive response may seem more justifiable. In order to live up to this call we have to leave our resentment and need for retaliation behind, lose our defensiveness and bring into our mind and heart the realization of who we represent in this world. We are not here to satisfy or promote our own well-being and agenda. We are here for God's. That's a hard nut to crack especially when it comes to loving and forgiving people who do hurtful and violent things

Alentamos a todos a ayudar con su recaudación de fondos; ellos son nuestros vecinos y la única escuela católica en el noreste.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

"Ama a tus enemigos y hazles el bien." ¡Nos cuesta mucho esta enseñanza! Pero no termina ahí. Jesús continúa con poner la otra mejilla cuando te golpeen, dando a todo el que te pide, haciendo con los demás lo que te gustaría que te hicieran a ti, siendo misericordioso, deteniendo nuestro juicio hacia los demás, perdonando y dando. Estamos bien cuando Dios hace estas cosas, pero nos ponemos un poco ansiosos cuando nos damos cuenta de que Dios realmente quiere que nosotros también las hagamos. La justicia secular y la justicia del Evangelio definitivamente no son lo mismo. Necesitamos recordar que fuimos hechos a imagen de Dios, no a imagen de nosotros mismos. El cristiano está llamado a actuar como Cristo incluso en aquellas situaciones en las que una respuesta más asertiva o defensiva puede parecer más justificable. Para estar a la altura de este llamado, tenemos que dejar atrás nuestro resentimiento y la necesidad de represalias, perder nuestra actitud defensiva y traer a nuestra mente y nuestro corazón la comprensión de quién representamos en este mundo. No estamos aquí para satisfacer o promover nuestro propio bienestar y agenda. Estamos aquí por Dios. Es un hueso duro de roer, especialmente cuando se trata de amar y perdonar a las personas que hacen cosas hirientes y violentas.
