Eighth Sunday in Ordinary Time
February 27, 2022

What we say and how we say it reveals the true intentions of our hearts. The content and manner of our speech is a window into the recesses of our souls. Our consciences, attitudes, sentiments, weaknesses, and motives are displayed. As much as we think we can hide the truth of our lives from others, we cannot. Who we really are is not only expressed on our lips but is written on our faces. Jesus says precisely this, "For every tree is known by its own fruit." What does the fruit of our lives say about us? Because we like to play the game of hide and seek with ourselves, in pretending that we are hiding we deflect attention others may give to us by becoming more critical of others. After all, the more time one can spend analyzing others' behavior the less time one has to look at his or herself. Often, the behaviors we abhor most in others are the very ones we are guilty of ourselves. We just don't know it yet. The more we put ourselves in the role of a judge, the more satisfaction and control we seem to achieve. Yet, what about ourselves? In focusing our attention on the beams in others' eyes, the aridity and barrenness of our lives goes unchecked. St. Ambrose reminds us that "no one heals himself by wounding another." Bringing our brothers and sisters down by being overly critical, serves no positive purpose. But the one who knows how easy it is to fall into sin and weakness and how quickly errors in judgment can be made, knows the depth of true compassion, mercy, and kindness. Having recognized our own poor choices, misguided opinions, negative emotions, and ability to do horrendous things, we can be more sympathetic and understanding of where others may be. We are designed to be mentors and guides to one another. In walking the journey together, we can help each other become the best we can be. Humility is the order of the day and the primary virtue that prevents us from being hypocrites.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Planted in the House of the Lord

Grocery delivery apps are all the rage these days, and I can't deny the convenience of tapping your finger a few times and seeing your week's shopping dropped on the doorstep. But there is one aspect of this trend that seems to make a lot of shoppers nervous — fruits and vegetables. A lot of us have strong opinions on our fresh produce and aren't ready to delegate this highly subjective selection process to a total stranger. My father was a produce manager and I remember as a child learning about the complexities of choosing correctly. Getting a bad bag of under ripe tomatoes after shopping on an app could easily sour one on the whole idea. Forrest Gump said life is like a box of chocolates. I say, we're all like grab-bags of produce dumped on someone's doorstep — but if we're Christians who live our faith publicly, we're stamped with the name of God. If your thumb is green enough, you know that you can tell a lot about a gardener from the produce he grows. We who are planted in the house of the Lord — what do we reveal about our Gardener? What do our actions show of His teachings? What do our words reflect of His voice? What does our strength reveal of the soil from which we sprang and the life-giving waters that nourished us? When we open ourselves up to those we encounter, let's make a special effort to show the care we have had — lest our peers come away from the experience thinking God doesn't know how to garden, when in reality, it's us who don't always know how to grow

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Plantando en la Casa del Señor

Las aplicaciones de entrega de comestibles están de moda en estos días, y no puedo negar la conveniencia de teclear el dedo algunas veces y ver las compras de la semana en la puerta. Pero hay un aspecto de esta tendencia que parece poner nerviosos a muchos compradores: las frutas y verduras. Muchos de nosotros tenemos opiniones sólidas sobre nuestros productos frescos y no estamos dispuestos a delegar este proceso de selección tan subjetivo a un completo extraño. Mi padre era gerente de productos agrícolas y recuerdo que cuando era niño aprendí sobre las complejidades de elegir correctamente. Obtener una bolsa defectuosa de tomates sin madurar después de comprar en una aplicación podría estropear fácilmente toda la idea. Forrest Gump dijo que la vida es como una caja de chocolates. Yo digo, todos somos como bolsas de comida tiradas a la puerta de alguien, pero si somos cristianos que vivimos nuestra fe públicamente, estamos sellados con el nombre de Dios. Si tu pulgar es lo suficientemente verde, sabrás que puedes decir mucho sobre un jardinero por los productos que cultiva. Nosotros que estamos plantados en la casa del Señor, ¿qué revelamos acerca de nuestro jardinero? ¿Qué muestran nuestras acciones de sus enseñanzas? ¿Qué reflejan nuestras palabras de Su voz? ¿Qué revela nuestra fuerza sobre la tierra de la que surgimos y las aguas vivificantes que nos nutrieron? Cuando nos abrimos a los que nos encontramos, hagamos un esfuerzo especial para mostrar el cuidado que hemos tenido, para que nuestros compañeros no salgan de la experiencia pensando que Dios no sabe cultivar un huerto, cuando en realidad somos nosotros los que no siempre sabemos cómo crecer.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

PREGUNTAS DE LA SEMANA

Primera Lectura:

Sirácides enseña que mucho se revela acerca de alguien en su forma de hablar. ¿Qué tan consciente eres de medir tus palabras con las de los demás?

Segunda lectura:

Pablo habla de la resurrección de Jesús quitando el "aguijón" y la "victoria" de la muerte misma. ¿De qué manera has experimentado esta realidad en la muerte de seres queridos en tu vida?

Evangelio:

Jesús desafía a sus discípulos a ejercitar la humildad hacia los demás y a dar buenos frutos en sus vidas. ¿Puedes citar ejemplos de cómo sigues estos mandamientos de Jesús en tu propia vida?

VIII Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario 27 de febrero de 2022

Antes de llegar al Miércoles de Ceniza e iniciar la Cuaresma, continuamos escuchando este domingo una serie de imágenes para enseñarnos lo que es la coherencia entre la fe y la vida. Si recordamos bien, el domingo pasado, el Señor dejó claro las reglas para una vida cristiana más justa y humana. Eso de amar a los enemigos y hacer el bien, no todos lo comprendemos y llevamos a cabo. Ahora, Jesús usa esta comparación con la siguiente pregunta. "Puede un ciego guiar a otro ciego? Ciertamente caerán ambos en algún hoyo" (Lucas 6,39). Un ciego mal acompañado de seguro tropezará y caerá al precipicio. Estas parábolas llenas de sabiduría son el corazón del Evangelio. ¿Cómo comprender esta parábola? ¿Cómo ponerla en práctica? La siguiente enseñanza es lo referente a la paja en el ojo ajeno. Se refiere a evitar las malas intenciones o la crítica a los demás. Dejar de hablar de los demás es un proceso de toda la vida. La corrección fraterna en la familia y en la sociedad lleva mucho de la educación cristiana y civil. Es decir, que, si se aplican las enseñanzas del Evangelio, se darán frutos buenos; y si no se aplican, el fruto es lo contrario. "Así, el hombre bueno saca cosas buenas del tesoro que tiene en su corazón, mientras que el malo, de su fondo malo saca cosas malas. La boca habla de lo que está lleno su corazón" (Lucas 6,45). Solo queda escuchar la Palabra de Dios y aplicarla en la vida, porque como se expresa la persona, da a conocer quién es.

LIVE THE LITURGY

"From the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks." What we say reveals so much about who we are. It discloses what is really going on within us: our integrity, priorities, depth of conscience, level of compassion and understanding of mercy. People whose speech is judgmental or overly critical usually reveal an interior life that is angry, unsettled, defensive, and shallow. Our speech communicates our sense of right and wrong, the strength of our relationship with God and how we feel about our fellow human beings. We are also quick to point out the faults of others, concentrating on their shortcomings and wrongdoings before our own. Only God fully understands what is going on inside the human heart. Only God can see the depth of a human soul. Perhaps it would do us well to consider what may be happening inside our brothers and sisters and temper our critical speech of what we see occurring outside. Looking within will also help us identify our own sins and weakness so that we can be better positioned to offer the type of wisdom and compassionate guidance that can really be of help to our friends.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

"De la plenitud del corazón habla la boca." Lo que decimos revela mucho sobre quiénes somos. Revela lo que realmente está sucediendo dentro de nosotros: nuestra integridad, prioridades, profundidad de conciencia, nivel de compasión y comprensión de la misericordia. Las personas cuyo discurso es sentencioso o demasiado crítico generalmente revelan una vida interior enojada, inestable, defensiva y superficial. Nuestro discurso comunica nuestro sentido del bien y del mal, la fuerza de nuestra relación con Dios y lo que sentimos por nuestros semejantes. También nos apresuramos a señalar las faltas de los demás, concentrándonos en sus errores y faltas antes que en las nuestras. Solo Dios comprende completamente lo que sucede dentro del corazón humano. Solo Dios puede ver la profundidad de un alma humana. Quizás nos haría bien considerar lo que puede estar sucediendo dentro de nuestros hermanos y hermanas y moderar nuestro discurso crítico de lo que vemos que ocurre afuera. Mirar hacia adentro también nos ayudará a identificar nuestros propios pecados y debilidades para que podamos estar mejor posicionados para ofrecer el tipo de sabiduría y guía compasiva que realmente puede ser de ayuda a nuestros amigos.
