1st Sunday of Lent
March 6, 2022

One of the greatest temptations human beings face is leaving the truth of who they are, where they came from and who created them in pursuit of more personal satisfactions. When we consider all that desires our attention in a given day, there are many lures that attract us to illusions about ourselves. We can easily find ourselves distracted or tired, preoccupied with preserving our status in life, social relationships, current trends, and corporate demands, and intrigued by pursuing what we perceive to be the “path of least resistance.” The daily concerns of life can quickly take our eyes off of our truth, making the empty promises of worldly accomplishments and ideologies seem so attractive. What is at risk in giving into this temptation? We cease giving thanks to and worshipping our Creator as we pursue our own self-sufficiency, power, and prestige. We replace the true God with a “pet” one. While many do not totally dismiss the idea of God and pretend to remain at least remotely connected, they do not invest themselves heart, mind, and soul in the relationship either. That is why we are so easily swayed. If something attractive comes along, we lunge for it. After all, having a position above and over everyone else is a good thing, isn’t it? In more honest moments, many have to admit that they believe this to be true. The Evil One is very convincing. But he can only gain control if we allow him to. About temptation, St. Basil remarks, “As the pilot of a vessel is tried in the storm, as the wrestler is tried in the ring, the soldier in the battle and the hero in adversity, so is the Christian tried in temptation.” And here is found the reason for Lent. It is a wonderful opportunity to get a handle on the attractive lures of illusion that easily captivate us and bring us off track. It is also a time for some honest reflection rooted in prayer, fasting, and selfless giving that can bring us to temptation’s remedy: love. Love of his Father gave Jesus resistance. It can do the same for us.

Wearing a face mask is no longer required. It is now optional.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Filling the Basket this Lent

Lent calls us into deeper everyday stewardship because it beautifully creates opportunities to be mindful of the call of Christ in even the most mundane moments of our day. Many of us will participate in the time-honored tradition of doing penance, or “giving something up” for Lent. When we do this, we are mimicking the Israelites who filled their baskets with the first fruits of their harvest, “and having set them before the Lord, your God, (bowing) down in his presence” (Deuteronomy 26:10).

What are we going to bring before the Lord this Lent? What are our first fruits?

If you’re struggling with ideas for how to “fill your basket,” it can help to come at the problem from the opposite side. Take a look at the six characteristics of Everyday Stewardship and think about the moments in your day when you fail to fulfill the virtues to which they call you.

What is keeping you from being mindful of the call of Christ throughout your day? I promise you, if you listen, you’ll hear it more than once.

What is keeping you from being prayerful? When you have set your first fruits before the Lord, what keeps you from bowing down in His presence to finish the offering?

What keeps you from being grateful — especially of the small things that so often go unnoticed?

What keeps you from being gracious, from leaving people smiling as they walk away?

What keeps you from being committed and accountable? Where do your excuses come from and what makes you indulge them?

OUR RELIGIOUS FORMATION PROGRAM NEEDS YOU

The end of our church calendar is coming to an end very soon! It’s time to recruit for volunteers to plan for the next liturgical year 2022/2023. LITURGY MINISTRY MEETING

Ash Wednesday was a powerful witness to the fact that it really takes a village to offer 4 beautiful, prayerful services with everyone doing their part, but also noticing what was missing, and stepping up! Many thanks to Father Gleen, and to all who helped. We will meet on Tuesday, March 15, at 6:30 pm to plan Holy Week services. All heads of liturgy ministries, please attend or send a representative, and anyone wanting to help, please feel welcome.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Llenando la Canasta esta Cuaresma

La Cuaresma nos llama a una corresponsabilidad diaria más profunda porque crea maravillosamente oportunidades para ser conscientes del llamado de Cristo incluso en los momentos más mundanos de nuestro día. Muchos de nosotros participaremos en la tradición de hacer penitencia o "renunciar a algo" durante la Cuaresma. Cuando hacemos esto, estamos imitando a los israelitas que llenaron sus canastas con los primeros frutos de su cosecha, "y habiéndolos puesto delante del Señor, tu Dios, (postrándose) en su presencia" (Deuteronomio 26:10).

¿Qué vamos a llevar ante el Señor esta Cuaresma? ¿Cuáles son nuestros primeros frutos?

Si estás luchando con ideas sobre cómo "llenar tu canasta", puede ser útil abordar el problema desde el lado opuesto. Echa un vistazo a las seis características de la corresponsabilidad diaria y piensa en los momentos de tu día en los que no lograste cumplir las virtudes a las que ellas te llaman.

¿Qué te impide ser consciente del llamado de Cristo a lo largo de tu día? Te lo prometo, si escuchas, lo oirás más de una vez.

¿Qué te impide estar en oración? Cuando has puesto tus primeros frutos ante el Señor, ¿qué te impide inclinarte en Su presencia para terminar la ofrenda?

¿Qué te impide ser agradecido, especialmente de las pequeñas cosas que tan a menudo pasan desapercibidas?

¿Qué te impide ser amable, dejar a la gente sonriendo mientras se alejan?

¿Qué te impide comprometerte y rendir cuentas? ¿De dónde vienen tus excusas y qué te hace complacerlas?

REUNIÓN DEL MINISTERIO DE LITURGIA

El Miércoles de Ceniza fue un poderoso testimonio del hecho de que realmente se necesita un pueblo para ofrecer 4 hermosos servicios de oración con todos haciendo su parte, pero también notando lo que faltaba y dando un paso adelante. Muchas gracias al Padre Gleen y a todos los que ayudaron. Nos reuniremos el martes 15 de marzo a las 6:30 pm para planificar los servicios de Semana Santa. Todos los jefes de los ministerios de liturgia, por favor asistan o envíen un representante, y cualquiera que desee ayudar, síntase bienvenido.

1º Domingo de Cuaresma 6 de marzo de 2022

La Cuaresma, que dio comienzo con el Miércoles de Ceniza, es un tiempo de preparación para la Pascua. La Iglesia nos invita a vivir en nosotros el recuerdo de la Pasión, Muerte y Resurrección del Señor. Es un tiempo para recordar la historia de la salvación. Las lecturas nos llevan a meditar el libro del Éxodo. Tiempo donde se invita a ir al desierto para reflexionar en las propias tentaciones que nos alejan de Dios. Se invita a hacer penitencia, a convertirse, a compartir, y a dialogar con nosotros mismos entrando en lo profundo del corazón y preguntarse: ¿Cómo es mi ayuno? ¿Cuál es mi penitencia que me acerca a Dios y a los demás? ¿Qué debo compartir con los demás? Hoy escuchamos las tentaciones de Jesús en el desierto. La Liturgia nos pone de frente a la tradición del relato de las tentaciones, Jesús es tentado, pero no vencido. Nos dice el Evangelio que: "Al ver el diablo que había agotado todas las formas de tentación, se alejó de Jesús, a la espera de otra oportunidad" (Lucas 4,13). La tentación no es pecado, lo malo es caer en ella. En la sociedad existen muchas tentaciones y, durante este período de Cuaresma, se deben purificar y luchar contra ellas con la gracia de Dios. Perseverar en la oración es otra clave para alejarse del mal. Estemos listos y acompañemos al Señor en su camino a Jerusalén a morir en la cruz.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Human beings did not come to believe in God just because of someone's private testimony about him. Rather, belief in God became real when human beings understood that all of human history is being guided and lead, kept and sustained by a God who is incredibly in love with all that he has made. It is this realization that leads us to thanksgiving and gratitude for the one who gives us "this land flowing with milk and honey." It also leads us to adoration and worship as we continue to see the creative power of God's presence in all of the events of our lives. The Church stands as a living witness to all of these things and calls us this Lent to reflect and remember. There is a great temptation for human beings to leave the truth of who they are, where they came from and who created them. Falling into this temptation we cease giving thanks to and worshipping our Creator as we pursue our own self-sufficiency, power, and prestige. While having more may seem better, the only thing we really need more of is love. This fortifies us and keeps us from falling.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Los seres humanos no llegaron a creer en Dios solo por el testimonio privado de alguien sobre él. Más bien, la fe en Dios se hizo realidad cuando los seres humanos entendieron que toda la historia humana está siendo guiada y dirigida, mantenida y sostenida por un Dios que está increíblemente enamorado de todo lo que ha hecho. Es esta comprensión la que nos lleva a la acción de gracias y la gratitud por quien nos da "esta tierra que mana leche y miel." También nos lleva a la adoración y la alabanza mientras continuamos viendo el poder creativo de la presencia de Dios en todos los eventos de nuestras vidas. La Iglesia se erige como un testimonio vivo de todas estas cosas y nos llama en esta Cuaresma a reflexionar y recordar. Existe una gran tentación para los seres humanos de dejar la verdad de quiénes son, de dónde vinieron y quién los creó. Al caer en esta tentación, dejamos de agradecer y adorar a nuestro Creador mientras buscamos nuestra propia autosuficiencia, poder y prestigio. Si bien tener más puede parecer mejor, lo único que realmente necesitamos es amor. Esto nos fortalece y evita que caigamos.

Estaremos rezando el viacrucis los viernes de la cuaresma a las 5:45 pm después de la misa diaria afuera en el patio.
