2nd Sunday of Lent
March 13, 2022

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose. Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so. St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

The Resurrection and Spiritual Hangriness

I want to talk about being hangry. I'll give you a quick description of hangriness, though I warn you, it doesn't come from the Oxford English Dictionary. Hangriness is when you're so hungry you get angry. You turn into a real piece of work. You can't get anything done and you're probably not a joy to be around, at least until you grab a snack. Everybody gets this way sometimes. We can be this way in our souls, too. It's so easy to get distracted by the hungers of this world: greed, pride, anxiety. We can become ruled by the needs of our bodies and the desires of our mind and, in doing so, neglect the needs and the desires of our souls. Everyday stewardship calls us to a constant reflection on the truth that we are not made for this world, as Christ clearly shows us in his Transfiguration. He reveals himself in his heavenly glory, just before he is going to be deprived of all earthly needs and wants — even his very life. He shows us that this is what we were meant for. This is what we are striving for. Lent exists to remind us that we are not made for this world. When you become spiritually hangry — or as Scripture more eloquently puts it this week, when your mind is "occupied with earthly things" — turn your thoughts to the Transfiguration. I promise you, it's even better than grabbing an energy bar.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

La Resurrección y la Hambruna Espiritual

Quiero hablar sobre estar hambriento. Te daré una descripción rápida de la hambruna, aunque te advierto que no proviene del Diccionario Inglés de Oxford. La hambruna es cuando tienes tanta hambre que te enojas. Te conviertes en un verdadero trabajo. No puedes hacer nada y probablemente no sea un placer tenerte cerca, al menos hasta que te comas un bocadillo. Todo el mundo se pone así a veces. Nosotros también podemos ser así en nuestras almas. Es muy fácil distraerse con las hambres de este mundo: codicia, orgullo, ansiedad. Podemos ser gobernados por las necesidades de nuestro cuerpo y los deseos de nuestra mente y, al hacerlo, descuidar las necesidades y los deseos de nuestra alma. La corresponsabilidad diaria nos llama a una reflexión constante sobre la verdad de que no estamos hechos para este mundo, como Cristo nos muestra claramente en su Transfiguración. Se revela a sí mismo en su gloria celestial, justo antes de ser privado de todas las necesidades y deseos terrenales, incluso de su propia vida. Nos muestra que para eso estamos destinados. Por esto nos esforzamos. La Cuaresma existe para recordarnos que no estamos hechos para este mundo. Cuando te sientas espiritualmente hambriento, o como dice la Escritura de manera más elocuente esta semana, cuando tu mente está "ocupada con las cosas terrenales," dirige tus pensamientos a la Transfiguración. Te lo prometo, es incluso mejor que tomar una barra de energía.

Segundo Domingo de Cuaresma

13 de marzo de 2022

“El Señor es mi luz y mi salvación, ¿a quién he de temer? Amparo de mi vida es el Señor, ¿ante quien temblaré? (Salmo 26,1). Junto a Dios no se debe de tener temor. Hemos visto como la pandemia destrozó vidas, y aun vivimos las secuelas de esta experiencia mundial. Dejó a muchas personas sin hogar y sin trabajo, sin techo ni comida. Sin embargo, en medio de todas las luchas de la presente vida, la persona no se desanima, porque grande es su esperanza que le reserva el Señor al final de su combate en la vida. ¡Dios siempre ha estado con nosotros, su compasión no tiene medida! La Transfiguración de Jesús sitúa hacia donde será el final de este camino. La Liturgia de este segundo domingo de Cuaresma, indica también lo que será la gran celebración de la Pascua. “Maestro, ¡qué bueno que estemos aquí! Levantemos tres chozas: una para ti, otra para Moisés y otra para Elías. Pero no sabía lo que decía (Lucas 9,33). Pedro, sin saber lo que decía, propone a Jesús detener ese momento de gloria para siempre, construyendo tres chozas, una para Jesús y otras dos para sus acompañantes. ¿Qué choza construiremos a Jesús en esta Cuaresma? ¿Cuál es la esperanza que mueve a vivir la vida con esperanza? San Juan, en su Evangelio, indica la cercanía y unidad entre Jesús y su Padre. “Ahora, Padre, dame junto a ti la misma Gloria que tenía a tu lado antes que comenzara el mundo (Juan 17,5). ¡Escuchemos a Jesús, que es el amado del Padre! Durante la semana, busque a propósito un tiempo de oración para tener unidad con Dios Padre, Dios Hijo y Dios Espíritu Santo.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Human beings did not come to believe in God just because of someone's private testimony about him. Rather, belief in God became real when human beings understood that all of human history is being guided and lead, kept and sustained by a God who is incredibly in love with all that he has made. It is this realization that leads us to thanksgiving and gratitude for the one who gives us "this land flowing with milk and honey." It also leads us to adoration and worship as we continue to see the creative power of God's presence in all of the events of our lives. The Church stands as a living witness to all of these things and calls us this Lent to reflect and remember. There is a great temptation for human beings to leave the truth of who they are, where they came from and who created them. Falling into this temptation we cease giving thanks to and worshipping our Creator as we pursue our own self-sufficiency, power, and prestige. While having more may seem better, the only thing we really need more of is love. This fortifies us and keeps us from falling.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Los seres humanos no llegaron a creer en Dios solo por el testimonio privado de alguien sobre él. Más bien, la fe en Dios se hizo realidad cuando los seres humanos entendieron que toda la historia humana está siendo guiada y dirigida, mantenida y sostenida por un Dios que está increíblemente enamorado de todo lo que ha hecho. Es esta comprensión la que nos lleva a la acción de gracias y la gratitud por quien nos da "esta tierra que mana leche y miel." También nos lleva a la adoración y la alabanza mientras continuamos viendo el poder creativo de la presencia de Dios en todos los eventos de nuestras vidas. La Iglesia se erige como un testimonio vivo de todas estas cosas y nos llama en esta Cuaresma a reflexionar y recordar. Existe una gran tentación para los seres humanos de dejar la verdad de quiénes son, de dónde vinieron y quién los creó. Al caer en esta tentación, dejamos de agradecer y adorar a nuestro Creador mientras buscamos nuestra propia autosuficiencia, poder y prestigio. Si bien tener más puede parecer mejor, lo único que realmente necesitamos es amor. Esto nos fortalece y evita que caigamos.
