ANNOUNCEMENTS

We love to make examples out of those who have erred and done wrong. Publicly punishing others serves as a means of demonstrating the consequences for what is deemed inappropriate or wrongful behavior. While this may appear an effective way of achieving conformity to established rules, it runs the real risk of distorting motivation. Obviously, we want people to do what is right and pursue healthy, virtuous behaviors and ideals. But is fear of punishment ever the best motivation for avoiding one action in favor of another? Doing something out of fear is never healthy. Focusing exclusively on our behavior and what others expect or think, leads to living life with a self-focused superficiality. We become more concerned about protecting ourselves from something negative and unpleasant, than investing ourselves in the freedom, wonder and awe of being human! We can still find our way to the unacceptable or inappropriate behavior as long as we do not get caught! Being a whole, focused, and God-centered human being requires more. It demands an investment of the heart. Virtuous, moral, and mature lifestyles reflective of the Gospel necessitate love. When we experience and recognize love, God's unconditional love, in the depth of our soul, we fall in love with what we have found. We then find ourselves leaving destructive and sinful actions behind in search of something more holy, dignified, true, integral, and loving. This is really "mercy realized." God's tremendous, loving, eternal forgiveness and willingness to bring us back to something more real and tender is transformational. The respect for myself that I receive from God is so life changing that it causes me to run quickly away from anything sinful and self-destructive to things that are whole and holy. There are many people who want nothing more than to judge or criticize us. What would actually stoning the woman caught in adultery really accomplish? Nothing more than the inflation of the already self-righteous egos of a few men who think they have power. They have no power because they are sinners too, just like everyone else. What all of us have is the humble ability to express sorrow for pursuing destructive thoughts and actions and receive the power of God's mercy. Then, Jesus' request to "go and sin no more" will be one we proudly heed and follow.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Make a Way

What's your comfort zone: emotionally, professionally, personally? We all have one. But did you realize that you can have one spiritually? Think about what you like and what you don't particularly enjoy when it comes to church, prayer, and liturgy. We all have "those songs" we crinkle our noses at, either because they're too modern or too old-fashioned. We all have "those people" in our parish whose ideas we aren't so sure about, whether that's because they're trying to change too much or because they seem always to be looking toward the past. Also, when was the last time you sat on the OTHER side of the church during Mass? As much as we may not want to admit it, even (and especially) as people of God, we get deeply attached to our own personal comfort zones — and we tend to view those outside with distrust. But what if God had a comfort zone? What if He viewed us, in our sin and our misery, as too "far away" from Himself to reach? Thankfully, our God is a God who "opens a way in the sea and a path in the mighty waters." Our God is a God who does "something new." The call to stewardship demands that we look outside of ourselves. Our thoughts, our opinions, our preferences — these things are not important to the steward. Even if there is a vast, dry desert of discord, or a seemingly endless wasteland of opposing views between us and our neighbor, God challenges us to "make a way" out of our comfort zone, that together we may announce His praise.

LA CORRESPONSABILIDAD DIARIA

Hacer un camino

¿Cuál es tu zona de confort: emocionalmente; profesionalmente; personalmente? Todos tenemos una. Pero ¿te habías dado cuenta de que puedes tener una espiritualmente? Piensa en lo que te gusta y lo que no disfrutas en particular cuando se trata de la iglesia, la oración y la liturgia. Todos tenemos "esos cantos" ante los que arrugamos la nariz, ya sea porque son demasiado modernos o anticuados. Todos tenemos "esas personas" en nuestra parroquia cuyas ideas no nos convencen, ya sea porque están tratando de cambiar demasiado o porque parecen estar siempre mirando hacia el pasado. Además, ¿cuándo fue la última vez que te sentaste del OTRO lado de la iglesia durante la misa? Por mucho que no queramos admitirlo, incluso (y especialmente) como pueblo de Dios, nos apegamos profundamente a nuestras propias zonas de confort personal, y tendemos a ver a los que están afuera con desconfianza. Pero ¿y si Dios tuviera una zona de confort? ¿Qué pasaría si Él nos viera, en nuestro pecado y nuestra miseria, como demasiado "lejos" de Él mismo para alcanzarlo? Dichosamente, nuestro Dios es un Dios que "abrió un camino en el mar y un sendero en las aguas impetuosas." Nuestro Dios es un Dios que hace "algo nuevo." El llamado a la corresponsabilidad exige que miremos más allá de nosotros mismos. Nuestros pensamientos, nuestras opiniones, nuestras preferencias: estas cosas no son importantes para el corresponsable. Incluso si hay un desierto vasto y seco de discordia, o un baldío aparentemente interminable de puntos de vista opuestos entre nosotros y nuestro vecino, Dios nos desafía a "abrir un camino" fuera de nuestra zona de confort, para que juntos podamos anunciar Su alabanza.

V Domingo de Cuaresma

3 de abril de 2022

Como sociedad, estamos muy habituados a juzgar y condenar a la ligera. En cualquier circunstancia, opinamos sin saber los hechos y fácilmente condenamos a las personas, sin conocer las circunstancias que estas gentes viven. Hoy, el Evangelio nos invita a corregir esa parte de nuestra persona que nos mete en serios aprietos por juzgar a la ligera. El Papa Francisco también nos hace enfocar en la parte importante que Jesús muestra a la mujer que fue encontrada en adulterio. "En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús salva de la condena de muerte a la mujer adúltera. Las palabras que Jesús utiliza son palabras de amor y misericordia, son palabras que invitan a la conversión". "Tampoco yo te condeno. Vete y en adelante no vuelvas a pecar" (Juan 8:11). Por envidia o por coraje, los enemigos de Jesús pretendían ponerle una trampa para, de una vez por todas, tomarlo por sorpresa y poder acusarlo de no cumplir la ley. Jesús era pura bondad y misericordia, sus actos eran solo para hacer el bien a las personas. Sus milagros ayudaban a superar la pobreza y la injusticia. Ahora, después de escuchar el Evangelio, y a una semana del Domingo de Ramos, cabe que nos preguntemos lo siguiente: ¿Cuántas cosas hacemos en contra de los otros por envidia o por venganza? ¿Hemos enmendado nuestra conducta en esta Cuaresma que está por terminar? ¡Jesús, te lo pido, desde el fondo de mi corazón, enséname a ser misericordioso con los demás! "Todavía es tiempo, dice el Señor, conviértanse a mí de todo corazón, porque soy compasivo y misericordioso" (Joel 2:12-13).

LIVE THE LITURGY

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

PROGRESS 2022 APPEAL

For those of you not familiar with the appeal, it benefits and empowers the ministries that serve the 75 churches in our Diocese. Let's work together to make this year Progress 2022 successful by achieving our goal. If you have questions or would like to help, please contact Sandra Morales or Linda Hanner at the listed email or by leaving a message with Luz our secretary.

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

La misericordia nos hace atentos a la voz de la verdad. No sabemos qué le sucedió a la mujer sorprendida en adulterio, después de su encuentro con Jesús. Se espera que haya encontrado lo que necesitaba para sentir verdadero dolor. Lo que sí sabemos es que, a través de su persuasión gentil y sabia, Jesús pone a los fariseos en su lugar y abre la puerta a la gracia para esta hija de Dios. Siendo explotada y utilizada para probar y desacreditar a Jesús, ella, que es públicamente conocida como pecadora, ahora es la víctima. Jesús nunca tolera que la gente sea usada e inmediatamente se apresura a defenderla. Como autor de la misericordia, Jesús se convirtió en su abogado y le abrió la puerta al amor de Dios. Jesús también se interpone entre nosotros y la postura dura, crítica y, a menudo, hiriente de nuestro mundo. Nos invita a la gracia, a dejar el pecado que nos ata y por el que a menudo se nos critica, y a buscar una vida de virtud y libertad.

PROGRESO 2022

Para aquellos de ustedes que no están familiarizados con esta campaña, beneficia y empodera a los ministerios que sirven a las 75 iglesias en nuestra Diócesis. Trabajemos juntos para que este año Progreso 2022 sea exitoso al lograr nuestra meta. Si tiene preguntas o desea ayudar, comuníquese con Sandra Morales o Linda Hanner al correo electrónico que figura o deje un mensaje con Lucy, nuestra secretaria.
