JUST CATHOLICS MEETING

We are a young adult ministry and we are inviting young adults ages 18-35 to come learn a little more about Catholic Social Teaching. It has its basis in scripture, and it helps Catholics think about social issues from a faith perspective and then encourages us to act according to the gospel. Catholic social teaching is a tool to put our faith into action and address issues around immigration, poverty, mental health, the environment, and many more! This semester we are also focusing on mental health, and we will be studying Catholic Mindfulness, which also has its root in scripture, and is guided by Ignatian Spirituality. Our meeting will take place this Saturday, 16 at 5pm, here at Christ the Savior in the Guadalupe room.

BISHOP'S HIKE FOR LIFE

Come! Join Bishop Mark
Saturday, October 14th 8:00 a.m. Mt. Cristo Rey
Let us gather to hike for life, to pray, and to raise funds to support Walking with Moms in Need. Come be the hands and feet of Jesus. Bring the family and hike together because every life is precious! Please register on-line using the QR code on the posters. Call 915-872-8401 for more information.

MATACHINES

Have you ever thought of being part of a matachines dancing group? Fr. Gleen would like very much to put together such a group. If anyone would like to volunteer to become a performer, please come to the office or call us.

If you prefer to give online, please go to elpaso.church and click on the "GIVE ONLINE" button. Thanks for your generosity

LIVE THE LITURGY

Our personal relationship with Christ is important, yes — but thank God, that is not all there is to being a Christian. We depend upon the support, the encouragement, and even the correction of the rest of the Body of Christ.

What are you supposed to do about the bad behavior of the people around you? You know who I'm talking about. That family member, friend, coworker, or acquaintance who is quite immoral. On this front there are two lively options in our culture: bash the person to others (probably online) or pretend everything's fine. The former damages the person. The latter ignores reality. What to do? Jesus' strategy in the Gospel of Matthew is as wise as it is difficult: go directly to the person, and then gradually expand the circle of intervention. Simple, often effective, and hard. But what we often miss is the context of the Lord's strategy, "If your brother sins against you..." Notice the italicized words. Is the person in a Christian familial bond with you? And was the action in question against you? If so, proceed with the plan. Fine. But how often we fret over the sins of those who either aren't our spiritual siblings or have done nothing directly to us. This is not an invitation to ignore injustice in the world. Rather, we should build bonds of fraternal love, and carefully discern when and how others' sins are indeed our concern. Sometimes they are. Other times — frequently, perhaps — they simply are not.

— Father John Muir

VIVIR LA LITURGIA

Nuestra relación personal con Cristo es importante, sí, pero gracias a Dios, eso no es todo lo que se necesita para ser cristiano. Dependemos del apoyo, el estímulo e incluso la corrección del resto del Cuerpo de Cristo

23° Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

10 de septiembre de 2023

Creo que la pandemia nos dejó una enseñanza muy grande y fue rezar juntos en familia y el deseo de Dios es que sigamos unidos en oración. Familia, comunidad y sociedad, lo necesitamos urgentemente. Pedir unidos por la paz, por que termine la violencia en las calles, es deber de cristianos. Darnos la mano unos a otros es compromiso para enfrentar las situaciones difíciles. ¿Qué tipo de situaciones existen ahora que debemos orar juntos? ¿Crees que eres responsable de pedir por tu familia? También, debemos dar testimonio; recordemos el refrán que dice: "Las palabras mueven, pero el ejemplo arrastra". El Evangelio también habla de la corrección fraterna, la cual se debe de hacer con prudencia, respeto y caridad, sin humillar al que se corrige. La catequesis del Papa Francisco a este respecto es muy específica y llena de enseñanza: "Para corregir al hermano que se ha equivocado, Jesús, sugiere una pedagogía de recuperación. Y siempre la pedagogía de Jesús es pedagogía de la recuperación; Él siempre busca recuperar, salvar" (09/06/2020). En resumen, es importante corregir con amor y estar abiertos también a que se nos corrija. Ponernos de acuerdo para pedir lo que nos conviene. Porque, Jesús asegura lo siguiente: "Pues donde están dos o tres reunidos en mi Nombre, allí estoy yo, en medio de ellos" (Mateo 18:20). Llamado para orar juntos y para participar en la Eucaristía dominical con entusiasmo. ¡Genial, Dios nos escucha y acompaña siempre!

PRACTICING CATHOLIC

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Love and Truth

I think even the most devout, the most pious Catholic reading this could summon to mind, if asked, one or even two examples of Catholic teaching for which they have desperately looked for a loophole. Don't worry, I won't make you share with the group. But bring it to your mind now: the doctrine you once resented, or perhaps still do. The commandment you don't fully understand, the one you bristle against. The rule you find the hardest to follow. The belief you hate explaining to your friends. If it disappeared from scripture or dropped out of the catechism, would your life really be easier? Would you be happier? I am thinking of mine. For a long time, I searched high and low for a way around this particular teaching. I read books and Scripture and tradition, I prayed and reflected and tried to argue with myself. For a time, I gave up complying with it entirely. I threw it to the wind, with a shoulder shrug and a self-satisfied assurance to myself that God, being a loving father, does not want his child to be unhappy. But reader: I was miserable. I was so, so miserable, and I stayed that way until I finally accepted that God is, indeed, a loving father, and desires nothing less than the unhappiness of his children. And so, to ward it off, he has given us the truth, and asked us to share it amongst ourselves like a cherished heirloom, a priceless inheritance. To share truth, you must show love. To show love, you must share truth. One demands the other. Because this is what Christ does for us, and this is the mission of the Church in this world. Loosening and binding. Bearing witness. Giving testimony. Speaking truth, and in speaking truth, showing love.

"If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts." — Psalm 95

WHY DO WE DO THAT? - CATHOLIC LIFE EXPLAINED

Should a Catholic Pursue an Annulment?

Question: After a civil divorce, is a Catholic obligated to pursue an annulment?

Answer:

Many Catholics are not exactly sure what an annulment does. An annulment does not deny that a marriage took place, nor does it deny that there once was love. It does not mean that people say anything untrue, such as they never loved each other or that everything in their marriage was wrong. An annulment does not negate children, nor make them illegitimate. An annulment addresses the spiritual aspect of marriage. In effect, an annulment says that at the time of the wedding, there was either something present or something absent that prevented the sacrament from taking place. It is a spiritual determination that, if granted in the affirmative, allows a person to marry in the Church. Annulments have no legal standing and are unable to be used in a civil court. Therefore, a Catholic has no moral obligation to pursue an annulment. However, when the tragedy of divorce occurs, and there is no hope for reconciliation, annulments may help bring some spiritual closure to a person's life. Some people have found the process to be healing and others have found it to be difficult. Speak to your priest or a member of the Diocesan Tribunal staff to decide what is best for you.

CATÓLICO PRACTICANTE

Por Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman

Amor y Verdad

Creo que incluso el católico más devoto y piadoso que lea esto podría traer a la mente, si se le pregunta, uno o incluso dos ejemplos de la enseñanza católica para los que han buscado desesperadamente una escapatoria. No te preocupes, no te haré compartir con el grupo. Pero tráelo a tu mente ahora: la doctrina que una vez te molestó, o tal vez todavía te molesta. El mandamiento que no entiendes completamente, contra el que te enfadas. La regla que te resulte más difícil de seguir. La creencia que odias explicarles a tus amigos. Si desapareciera de las Escrituras o fuera retirado del catecismo, ¿sería realmente más fácil tu vida? ¿Serías más feliz? yo estoy pensando en el mío. Durante mucho tiempo, busqué por todas partes una forma de sortear esta enseñanza en particular. Leí libros, Escrituras y tradiciones, oré, reflexioné y traté de discutir conmigo misma. Durante un tiempo, dejé de cumplirla por completo. La arrojé al viento, encogiéndome de hombros y asegurándome a mí misma que Dios, siendo un padre amoroso, no quiere que su hija sea infeliz. Pero lector: yo era miserable. Yo era tan, tan miserable, y seguí así hasta que finalmente acepté que Dios es, de hecho, un padre amoroso, y desea nada menos que la infelicidad de sus hijos. Y así, para evitarla, nos ha dado la verdad y nos ha pedido que la compartamos entre nosotros como una reliquia preciada, una herencia invaluable. Para compartir la verdad, debes mostrar amor. Para mostrar amor, debes compartir la verdad. Uno exige lo otro. Porque esto es lo que Cristo hace por nosotros, y esta es la misión de la Iglesia en este mundo. Soltar y atar. Dando fe. Dando testimonio. Hablando la verdad, y al decir la verdad, mostrando amor.

*"¡Oh, si escucharais hoy su voz!: No endurezcáis vuestro corazón."
— Salmo 9*

¿POR QUÉ HACEMOS ESO? - VIDA CATÓLICA EXPLICADA

¿Debe un Católico Buscar una Anulación?

Pregunta: Después de un divorcio civil, ¿está obligado un católico a solicitar la anulación?

Respuesta:

Muchos católicos no están exactamente seguros de lo que hace una anulación. Una anulación no niega que hubo un matrimonio, ni niega que alguna vez hubo amor. No significa que las personas digan algo falso, como que nunca se amaron o que todo en su matrimonio estuvo mal. Una nulidad no niega a los hijos, ni los hace ilegítimos. Una anulación aborda el aspecto espiritual del matrimonio. En efecto, una anulación dice que, en el momento de la boda, había algo presente o algo ausente que impidió que se llevara a cabo el sacramento. Es una determinación espiritual que, si se otorga en forma afirmativa, permite que una persona se case por la Iglesia. Las anulaciones no tienen valor legal y no pueden ser utilizadas en un tribunal civil. Por lo tanto, un católico no tiene la obligación moral de solicitar la anulación. Sin embargo, cuando ocurre la tragedia del divorcio y no hay esperanza de reconciliación, las anulaciones pueden ayudar a cerrar espiritualmente la vida de una persona. Algunas personas han encontrado que el proceso es sanador y otras lo han encontrado difícil. Habla con tu sacerdote o con un miembro del personal del Tribunal Diocesano para decidir qué es lo mejor para ti.
